

YPOG advises Cherry Ventures on the Structuring of its Fifth Fund Generation

Berlin, February 4, 2025 – A YPOG team co-led by Stephan Bank and Helder Schnittker has once again provided comprehensive legal, tax, and regulatory advice to Berlin-based venture capital firm Cherry Ventures on the structuring of its latest fund generation. With a total of $500 million raised, this marks an important milestone as Cherry Ventures continues to expand its investment activities across Europe.

The capital is allocated between Cherry Ventures Fund V, the firm's flagship early-stage fund, and Cherry Ventures Select V, an opportunity fund focused on supporting the most promising portfolio companies as they scale beyond Series B.

"We are delighted to have advised Cherry Ventures on structuring their latest fund generation", said Stephan Bank, Partner at YPOG. "This successful fundraising reflects strong investor confidence in Cherry's approach and its continued focus on empowering European founders."
