YPOG expands its funds practice in Berlin: Andreas Rodin joins as Associated Partner

Berlin, July 01, 2022 - YPOG expands its funds practice in Berlin and reinforces its team with Poellath founding partner Andreas Rodin. The highly regarded lawyer joins as Associated Partner. Beyond his outstanding fund structuring expertise, he is renowned for his extensive experience in the practice areas of regulatory and tax law.

At YPOG, Rodin will continue his work focused on the structuring of private equity and venture capital funds and will be active in the education and encouragement of young professionals.

"With the entry of Andreas Rodin as an Associated Partner, YPOG is specifically strengthening its expertise in the area of fund structuring. Especially our young team members will benefit from his expertise and wealth of experience" says YPOG partner Fabian Euhus.

"I am very excited about the challenging task and great opportunity to join the funds practice of this dynamically growing law firm. Being part of a young and ambitious team at YPOG enables me to share the experience I have gained over many years and to offer my young colleagues a helping hand on their way", adds Andreas Rodin.

About Andreas Rodin

Andreas Rodin was a founding partner of the renowned law firm Poellath+ in 1997 and was a key member of its internationally recognized funds practice. After leaving the law firm at the end of 2021, he worked briefly at Poellath spin-off Orbit. He was a board member of the German private equity and venture capital association (BVK), responsible for the legal and tax concerns of the German private equity sector. Since 2004, he has been consulted as an expert by the Finance Committee of the German parliament (Bundestag) concerning all legislative procedures relating to private equity. Andreas Rodin is regularly listed in leading and independent rankings as one of the most important experts for fund structuring and tax consulting in Germany.
